PROBATION

The defendant is hereby sentenced to probation for a term of: five (5) years.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of placement on probation and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

- The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
- The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check, if applicable.)
- The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of probation that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) the defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer;
- 3) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 5) the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician. Except as authorized by court order, the defendant shall not possess, use or sell marijuana or any marijuana derivative (including THC) in any form (including edibles) or for any purpose (including medical purposes). Without the prior permission of the probation officer, the defendant shall not enter any marijuana dispensary or grow facility;
- 6) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 7) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer. (The Court expressly excludes this to her father, Thomas Noland);
- 8) the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 9) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 10) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
- 11) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement; and
- 12) the defendant shall provide access to any requested financial information.
- 13)

DEFENDANT: Katherine Noland
CASE NUMBER: 14-cr-00401-RM-01

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless the defendant is in compliance with the periodic payment obligations imposed pursuant to the Court's judgment and sentence.
2. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall apply any monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritances, judgments, and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court ordered financial obligation in this case.
3. If the defendant has an outstanding financial obligation, the probation office may share any financial or employment documentation relevant to the defendant with the Asset Recovery Division of the United States Attorney's Office to assist in the collection of the obligation.
4. The defendant shall document all income or compensation generated or received from any source and shall provide such information to the probation officer as requested.
5. All employment for the defendant shall be approved in advance by the supervising probation officer. The defendant shall not engage in any business activity unless the activity is approved by the probation officer. Any approved business activity must operate under a formal, registered entity. For any approved business activity, the defendant shall provide the probation officer with the names of all business entities and their registered agents. The defendant shall not register any new business entity, foreign or domestic, without the approval of the probation officer. The defendant shall not cause or induce others to register business entities on her behalf. For any approved business activity, the defendant shall maintain business records. The defendant shall provide all requested documentation and records to the probation officer regarding any of her business activities as requested by the probation officer.
6. The defendant shall submit to a substance abuse evaluation, and if deemed appropriate, the defendant shall participate in and successfully complete a program of testing and/or treatment for substance abuse, as approved by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. The defendant shall abstain from the use of alcohol or other intoxicants during the course of treatment and shall pay the cost of treatment as directed by the probation officer.
7. The defendant shall submit to a mental health evaluation, and if deemed appropriate, the defendant shall participate in and successfully complete a program of mental health treatment, as approved by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. The defendant shall pay the cost of treatment as directed by the probation officer.
8. The defendant shall remain medication compliant and shall take all medications that are prescribed by her treating psychiatrist. The defendant shall cooperate with random blood tests as requested by his treating psychiatrist and/or supervising probation officer to ensure that a therapeutic level of her prescribed medications is maintained.
9. The defendant shall perform 100 hours of community service as directed by the probation officer.
10. The defendant shall be placed on home detention for a period of six (6) months, to commence within 21 days of release. During this period, the defendant shall remain at her place of residence at all times other than time spent at work or time spent on other activities approved in advance by the probation officer. This period of home detention shall be enforced by electronic monitoring. To permit this monitoring, the defendant shall maintain a telephone at her place of residence without any special services, modems, answering machines, or cordless telephones. The defendant shall wear electronic monitoring devices and follow all other procedures specified by the probation officer. The defendant shall pay the cost of electronic monitoring as directed by the probation officer.

DEFENDANT: Katherine Noland
CASE NUMBER: 14-cr-00401-RM-01

STATEMENT OF REASONS

VII COURT DETERMINATIONS OF RESTITUTION

A Restitution Not Applicable.

B Total Amount of Restitution: $20,000.00

C Restitution not ordered (Check only one.):

- 1 For offenses for which restitution is otherwise mandatory under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, restitution is not ordered because the number of identifiable victims is so large as to make restitution impracticable under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A(c)(3)(A).
- 2 For offenses for which restitution is otherwise mandatory under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, restitution is not ordered because determining complex issues of fact and relating them to the cause or amount of the victims' losses would complicate or prolong the sentencing process to a degree that the need to provide restitution to any victim would be outweighed by the burden on the sentencing process under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A(c)(3)(B).
- 3 For other offenses for which restitution is authorized under 18 U.S.C. § 3663 and/or required by the sentencing guidelines, restitution is not ordered because the complication and prolongation of the sentencing process resulting from the fashioning of a restitution order outweigh the need to provide restitution to any victims under 18 U.S.C. § 3663(a)(1)(B)(ii).
- 4 Restitution is not ordered for other reasons. (Explain.)

D Partial restitution is ordered for these reasons (18 U.S.C. § 3553(c)):

VIII ADDITIONAL FACTS JUSTIFYING THE SENTENCE IN THIS CASE (If applicable.)

Sections I, II, III, IV, and VII of the Statement of Reasons form must be completed in all felony cases.
